Christmas Cookies

Do not neglect to do good and share what you have.

Hebrews 13:16

Do you have a favorite Christmas cookie? Mine is a German hard molasses cookie. My grandmother would bake the cookies and then I would get to decorate them by applying a white icing with a goose feather.

Hebrews 13:16 says that we should not neglect doing good and to share what we have. Spending time with others baking and decorating Christmas cookies is a good way to do this. The time we spent together allowed my grandmother to not only share the tradition of making these cookies, but to also share her life experiences. Most importantly, it gave her a time to share her faith in God's grace with me.

So, this Christmas season, dig out your favorite recipe, heat up the oven, and do good by feeding others physically and spiritually.

Lord, help me to do good and share what I have with others. Amen.
