

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 23, 2021

Unto You

---

Unto you is born a savior.

Luke 2:20

These words were first sung to the shepherds — poor, dirty, and despised as they were. But we know “unto you” includes you and me as well as those who are lonely, aging, or suffering in body or spirit. Our prayers must surround all our caring Lord would help — addicts, prisoners, homeless, our special needs children — all of God’s people, whatever their station in life.

And how will they get the message that this Christmas joy is for them? From you and me, in every opportunity we can find, using our limited abilities as best we can - from our homes, shopping trips, our Christmas letters of cheer, our caring calls or notes, perhaps just a smile or wave, we can share Christ’s Christmas joy.

Constance Bretscher Valparaiso, IN

Dear Newborn Savior, help us to find ways to share our Christmas joy. Amen.

Reflect: Let your faith and joy show to all with whom you come in contact.

Read: Luke 2 and 2 Corinthians 2:15

